From lower energy bills to a healthier indoor environment, our A-rated homes offer a multitude of benefits for both your family and the planet. Embrace a greener lifestyle without compromising on luxury or style.

Every Lotus Home is built with care and precision, ensuring longevity and reliability. To provide complete peace of mind, each property comes with a 10-year structural warranty.

LOCATION

Woodland Grange is ideally situated just off the Ballygowan Road in Comber. Comber, the adaptation of “Am Comer”, an Irish word meaning confluence gives the town its name. The confluence of two rivers, The Glen River and the Enler River which meet here on their way to Strangford Lough. You will be spoilt for choice with local attractions such as National Trust home at Mount Stewart estate houses and country parks at Scrabo, Delamont Country Park and the Wetlands Centre at Castle Espie.

The location has great private and public transport links; being close to the main commuter routes to Belfast City. This route offers the convenience of travelling by car or public transport. Translink buses provide great access to local amenities on a regular basis. The town of Comber is only minutes away, with Belfast less than a 30-minute drive. Discover the possibilities and make Woodland Grange your home - where luxury, convenience and community come together.

LIFESTYLE & LEISURE

The area surrounding Woodland Grange offers a wealth of amenities to suit every lifestyle. Families will appreciate the excellent selection of nearby schools, while food lovers can indulge in a variety of local restaurants, cafés, and independent retailers. Many of these are renowned for their exceptional quality, attracting admirers from across Northern Ireland and beyond.

The tranquil shores of Strangford Lough provide the perfect setting for outdoor enthusiasts, offering activities such as sailing, kayaking, diving, and boating. Castle Espie Wetland Centre, a haven for wildlife enthusiasts, is a must-visit destination. It plays host to nearly the entire global population of Brent Geese during the winter months, making it a unique opportunity to witness these magnificent birds in their natural habitat.

The Comber Greenway offers cyclists a 7-mile traffic free cycle route; part of the National Cycle Network along the old Belfast to Comber railway line. Along the route you can take in views of Stormont and Scrabo Tower. For those keen to get out and about and be active the pathway leads towards the leafy suburbs of East Belfast and Ballyhackamore. These areas also boast great eateries and a café culture.

Sporting opportunities are also in abundance, Comber is home to North Down cricket club, one of Ireland's oldest and most famous cricket clubs. Strangford Yacht Club and Knock Golf Club are within easy reach for those seeking a more relaxed type of sporting activity. Comber Leisure Centre has excellent facilities for recreation all year round. Fitness classes, gym, health suite, floodlit Astro turf pitch and four tennis courts are just some of the many amenities to take advantage of.
