Belfast Hotel Market

Belfast has a total of 51 hotels providing 5,237 bedrooms, which represents around half of the total bedroom stock in Northern Ireland.

The 4-star segment provides for approximately 47%, followed by the budget segment at 28%, 5 star at 10% and 3 star at 9%. The extended stay segment accounts for just 7%.

The Belfast hotel market has been extremely robust over the past 2.5 years, as illustrated in the graph below. For YE 2024, Revenue per Available Room is 5.4% higher than that achieved in 2023 supported by record high Average Daily Rates of £115.04 and occupancy of 77.4% (source: STR).

Destination Belfast

From Titanic heritage to Games of Thrones territory, music festivals through to wall art, there's plenty going on for such a compact city.

A colourful and dynamic port city with a troubled past, Belfast is a vibrant cultural hub packed with lively pubs, an eclectic food scene, iconic buildings, boutique shopping and a myriad of immersive experiences. Belfast has also been officially named the world's best conference destination for a third year at the 2023 Conference & Incentive Travel (C&IT) awards in London, securing a record-breaking position that underlines the city's strengths as a major international draw for business delegates and event organisers. According to Visit Belfast in 2022 it was estimated that c. 30,000 delegates attended conferences in Belfast.

ICC Belfast, Northern Ireland's only purpose-built international convention centre, was also a winner in the 'Best Venue – UK' category, the shortlist which featured London's ExCel and ICC Birmingham. A joint study by Ulster University and Dublin City University revealed that more than 1.3m cross-border visits were made to Northern Ireland in 2023, compared with almost 400,000 in 2013, a significant increase of 225%.
