DESCRIPTION

This beautifully architectural designed home is situated in a gated development and has an elevated position with wonderful views. It has lots of features both inside and out, which qualify it as a first class family home. The accommodation is particularly well proportioned and extremely practical with lots of space where it is needed most. This property has been extended to provide annex/granny flat accommodation to include a large open plan living/kitchen/dining area, shower room and bedroom.

Well positioned on the Derriaghy & Boomers Road to take full advantage of the many services on offer in Lisburn City Centre the property is also a short commute to Belfast by road or rail. Internally the property has been well designed to meet the needs of the modern family with well-proportioned rooms and flexible accommodation.

Viewings strongly recommended to fully appreciate the many appealing features of this fine home.
