SUMMARY

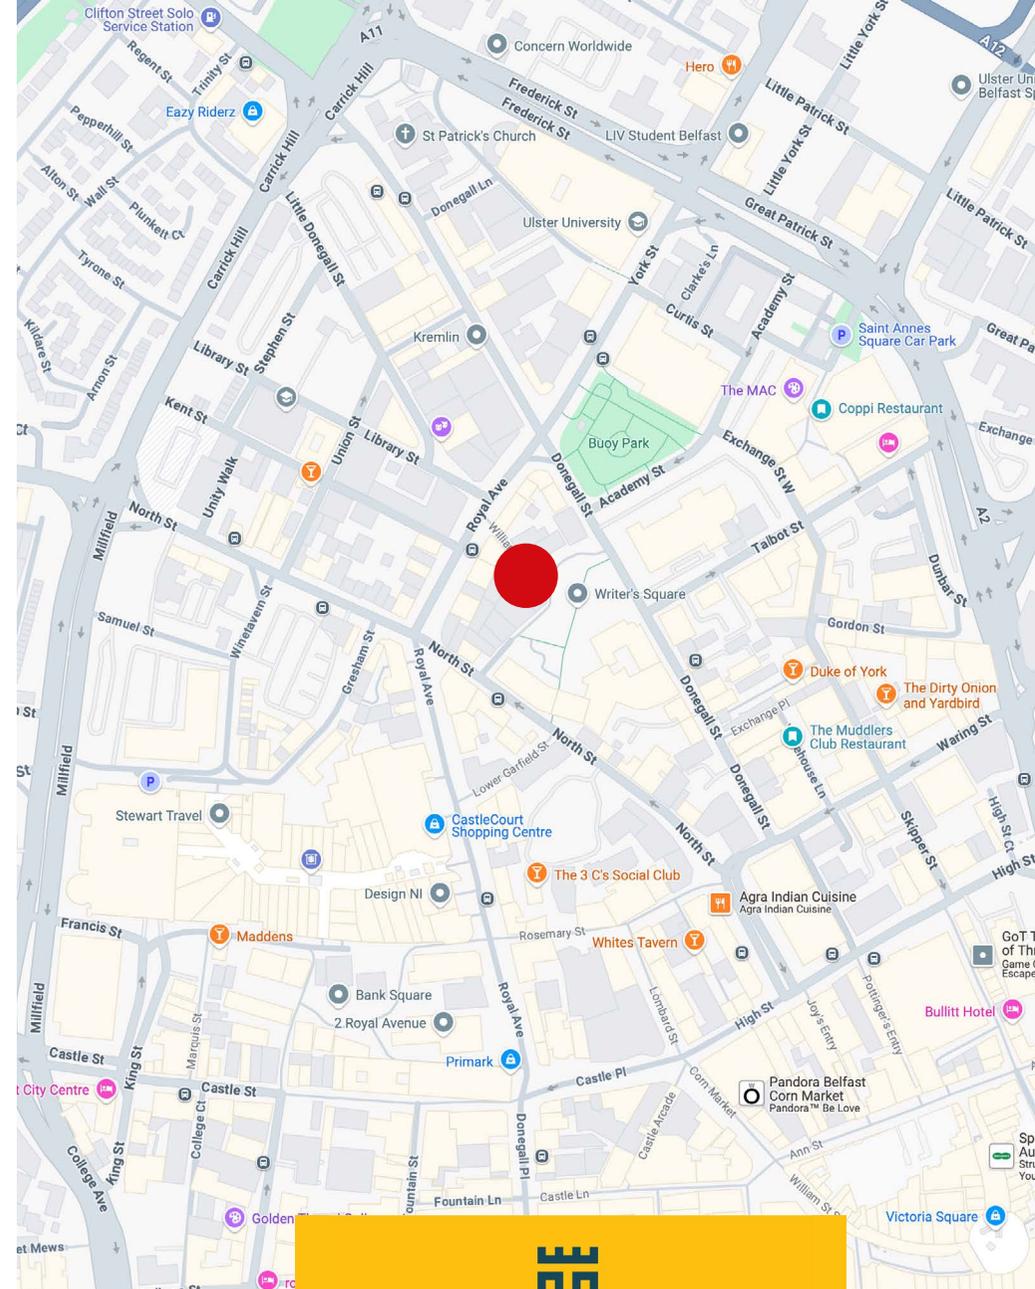

- High profile offices at 1st – 3rd floors, St Anne's House.
- Three floors available with suites from 209 m² (2,250 ft²) to 627 m² (6,750 ft²).
- Located in Cathedral Quarter and a short distance from Ulster University Campus.

DESCRIPTION

- Own door modern office suites, facing an attractive pedestrian precinct at the spacious and landscaped Writers Square, opposite St. Anne's Cathedral.
- The premises are finished to include aluminium framed glazed entrance doors into entrance lobby, passenger lift and stairwell to upper floors via Church Street. A separate stairwell access is also available via William Street.
- All three floors provide a mix of open plan and cellular office space including smooth plastered and painted walls, suspended ceilings, raised access floors and electric wall mounted heaters throughout with kitchen and toilet facilities.

LOCATION

- The building occupies a high profile location overlooking Writers Square and St Anne's Cathedral in the popular Cathedral Quarter area of Belfast City Centre. The property is located close to the new Ulster University Campus.
- Occupiers nearby include St. Anne's Belfast Cathedral, The Ulster University Belfast Campus, Belfast Central Library, the Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland, the Royal Ulster Academy of Arts and the MAC (Metropolitan Arts Centre).
- Situated close to Royal Avenue, the offices are within easy access of car parks and public transport links as well as the Province's motorway networks. The prime retail areas of Donegall Place and CastleCourt are within a minutes walk.
