Location

The property is located on University Street near the Ormeau Road junction, whilst the amenities of Botanic Avenue and Belfast city centre can be reached within 4 & 10 minutes walking respectively.

The offices form part of the newly refurbished Audit Office building, with tenant dedicated access via a private street between the subject and Holiday Inn Express.

The surrounding area comprises a mix of both commercial and residential properties, with the street recently seeing a significant amount of investment via redevelopment and refurbishment projects. Nearby occupiers include, Queen's University, Special Olympics Ulster, Pharmaceutical Society and a range of professional service practices.

Description

The building consists of a three storey office, occupied in part by the Audit Office. The remainder provides three open plan office suites, with male, female and disabled WC's located in each floor. All floors benefit from lift access. On site car parking is available, further information on request.

The offices are newly fitted to a Grade A specification, to include:

- Suspended ceilings
- Raised access flooring
- Full air conditioning
- Key fob access and security system
- Excellent natural light throughout
