Location

The farm is conveniently located off the Gardinerscross Road in a sought after residential & agricultural area approximately 2 miles South of Tempo and 4.5 miles North West of Brookeborough. The immediate vicinity comprises agricultural holdings and associated residential dwellings with a large range of shops, schools and local amenities provided within the nearby towns and villages.

Description

Situated in a sought after agricultural area this top quality parcel is renowned as one of the most productive veins of land in the surrounding and wider county district.

The free draining lands which would be suitable for cutting/ grazing purposes are in an excellent state of production and are bound by stock fences, mature hedgerows and the Tempo river. The valuable holding comprises a mix of flat and gently sloping fields and can be easily accessed from the county road.

In addition to the excellent land parcel the property offers modern sheds to include a 63ft x 48ft slatted cattle house, a 26ft x 48ft 'lean to' style dry storage shed, a covered silo and livestock handling facilities.

This exceptional farm is sure to attract a high level of interest and therefore early viewing by appointment is highly recommended.
