11 Brookborough Avenue

, Carrickfergus, BT38 7LG

This red brick detached house is situated in the highly sought-after Downshire area, offering a convenient location close to Carrickfergus town centre and excellent transport links, making it ideal for families or commuters. The property features three bedrooms and a practical layout, including a lounge and a 17'5 family room open to the dining area, both with solid wood flooring and fireplaces. Sliding patio doors lead to a conservatory, creating a useful connection to the low-maintenance rear patio garden.

The kitchen offers a range of high and low level units, with a lean-to utility room and downstairs WC providing added convenience. The family bathroom includes a separate shower cubicle, and the floored loft space with Velux roof light adds extra storage or potential for further use. A key highlight is the impressive 48'7 x 12'10 garage/workshop, which is ideal for those needing additional space for storage, hobbies, or an area for a potential business use. With double glazing, gas heating, a driveway with parking for three cars, and no ongoing chain, this well-located and well-equipped home also offers scope for future extension (subject to approvals). Early viewing is recommended.
