15A Mullaghmore Park

Greenisland, Carrickfergus, BT38 8RG

• Situated in the highly sought-after Mullaghmore area of Greenisland, this spacious detached home is ideally suited to family living and offers well-proportioned accommodation with excellent access to both road and rail networks. The property features four bedrooms, including three generously sized doubles, with the master bedroom further benefiting from an en suite shower room. The 19'6 x 11'8 lounge is enhanced by a feature fireplace and solid wood flooring, while a separate family room complete with double doors opening onto the rear garden offers additional living space that is perfect for entertaining. The kitchen fitted with oak units, is open plan to a well-sized dining area and has an additional door to the rear garden. The family bathroom is fitted with a white suite, while a separate downstairs WC adds further convenience. The home also benefits from double-glazed windows and an oil-fired heating system. Externally, the property offers an enclosed rear garden laid to lawn, while an integrated garage and a driveway with off-road parking complete the practical benefits of this family home. With no ongoing chain, this is an excellent opportunity to secure an attractively priced property to reflect the need for some minor updating in a desirable location, and early viewing is highly recommended.
