95 BELFAST ROAD,
NEWTOWNARDS, BT23 4TS

OFFERS AROUND £690,000

Approached by a sweeping driveway and set back from the road to ensure privacy, this detached period home is simply stunning.

Situated on a lush 1 acre site with manicured gardens to front and rear, this distinguished property offers fantastic accommodation, period features, modern luxury and space internally and externally.

The Belfast Road is popular because of its proximity to Newtownards town centre but also because its within minutes of the main arterial routes to Belfast which makes this home perfect for anyone having to commute to the City Centre.

On entering the home you will immediately appreciate the décor, space and light and on the ground floor you have five reception areas, three with fireplaces and one with a stove, a well proportioned kitchen with a good range of units, wc, utility room and cloakroom.

The first floor has an office/bedroom, modern bathroom and four double bedrooms, primary with luxury ensuite bathroom.

The front of the property has panoramic views over Newtownards and towards Scrabo Tower, the rear enjoys rural views over the surrounding fields and all areas of the garden have been planted and maintained to create well established bedding areas and in addition, there are several seating areas to enjoy sun at different times of the day.

Overall, this property is one not to be missed as homes of this standard don't come to the market often. We recommend viewing at your earliest opportunity to avoid disappointment.
