

21 ARDMORE AVENUE, FINAGHY ROAD NORTH, BELFAST, BT10 0JP

A very rare opportunity to purchase this extended semi-detached home commanding this superior setting on an extensive site within this preferred and extremely desirable residential location that is only a short walk away from Finaghy Railway Station and all of the amenities on the nearby Upper Lisburn Road, as well as proximity to lots of schools, shops and transport links, including an abundance of amenities in Andersonstown along with state-of-the-art leisure centres, cafes and restaurants, as well as the Glider service, to name a few!

This outstanding home holds a superb mature position with large private gardens and ample off-road car parking; the well-appointed accommodation is briefly outlined below.

Originally a three-bedroom, the property has been adapted by the current owner and now offers two bedrooms, which include a large principal bedroom with spotlights and a private modern ensuite shower room that has contemporary tiling.

On the ground floor there is a welcoming entrance hall and a contemporary open-plan living/kitchen/dining and entertaining space. The kitchen is eye-catching with high-gloss units and a range of integrated appliances. Also on the ground floor is an extended downstairs white bathroom suite that also has spotlights and decorative tiling.

Other qualities include gas-fired central heating and mostly double glazing, as well as being ideally placed on this larger-than-average mature site that sets the house in a private position well back from the road with well-maintained, good-sized gardens that can be hard to come across.

Early viewing comes highly recommended for this outstanding semi-detached home in a location that is in constant demand.
