Family Approved!

This spacious and well-presented bungalow offers more than most in terms of space both inside and out. The surrounding gardens are an absolute delight while five bedrooms, two large reception rooms and three bathrooms are sure to meet the demands of modern day life. The location is sure to prove popular and a big attraction for parents that want a choice of leading primary schools, while also being within a short walk of the bus to secondary and grammar schools.

The bungalow comprises an entrance hall which leads to the inner hallway, a large lounge with a feature fireplace that has access to a snug area and a sun porch, a spacious living & dining room with a feature fireplace and patio doors and a kitchen/diner with integrated appliances and a breakfast bar. There are five bedrooms of which two benefit from en-suite shower rooms and there is a main bathroom with a modern three piece suite.

The property benefits from a large site that offers surrounding gardens, a spacious driveway and a double garage with light & power. The gardens are laid in lawn which are complimented by an array of trees, plants and shrubs. All age groups of the family will love the outdoor space on offer with areas to cater to everyone's needs.

The property is located just off the main Saintfield Road with a host of amenities close by and the Cairnshill park and ride is literally across the road, ensuring access to Belfast city centre is easy and quick. Forestside shopping centre is only five minutes away and there is an excellent range of schools within the vicinity.
