Stunning family home on circa 10 Acres of land!

This is an exceptional family residence set amidst approximately 10 acres of picturesque land with views over 'Montgomery's Lough', which you will own a substantial portion of. Situated on an elevated site, this property promises a tranquil retreat conveniently located to Ballynahinch, Lisburn and Belfast.

The spacious and luxuriously appointed accommodation spans two floors, designed to embrace the delightful views from most rooms. A raised terrace accessible from the kitchen and lounge, invites al fresco afternoons and evenings... perfect for relaxing.

The versatility of the layout includes the potential to run a thriving Bed and Breakfast business and it has been passed by the NI Tourist board. Three large mostly completed rooms await further development on the second floor, offering additional space to suit various needs.

The residence's impressive features are highlighted by the stunning reception hall with a full-height ceiling. The bedrooms, each generously proportioned, boast ensuite shower rooms and the master bedroom and en-suite is on the first floor, alongside a luxurious bathroom.

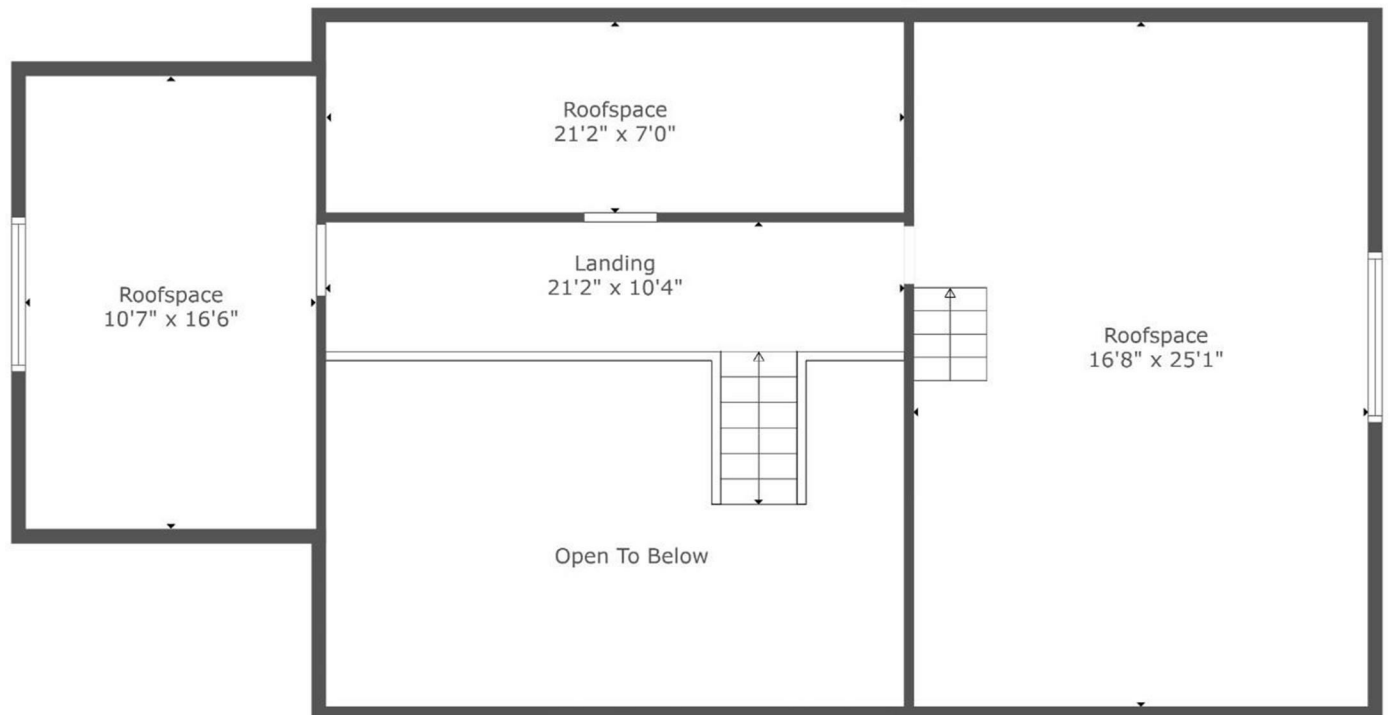

Outside, the property unfolds with extensive gardens, tastefully landscaped with rolling lawns leading to Montgomery lough. A wooden summerhouse by the water's edge, invites moments of serenity, while a young orchard provides a harvest of apples, plums, and pears in the autumn. The property's charm extends to a sandstone flagged terrace and timber decking, perfect for soaking in the natural beauty and observing the wildlife that frequents the lough.

Whether envisioning a serene family retreat or a potential bed and breakfast venture, this residence offers an idyllic lifestyle opportunity amidst breathtaking surroundings.

The residential home with adjoining land and an additional business premises can be purchased together or individually depending on your requirements.
