

Delightful rural building site with views towards Strangford Lough
Outline planning permission granted for single dwelling
Impressive level, yet elevated site
Application No LA06/2021/1070/O

Killer Views!

Relatively level, yet elevated, this excellent building site commands views towards Strangford Lough from a delightful rural situation. Only minutes from Whiterock Bay, with its many social amenities, and the shops, primary school, churches and restaurant at Killinchy Village/Balloo, this location offers convenience yet seclusion in an area rapidly increasing in popularity.

Subject to approval of reserved matters this is a rare opportunity to design and build to your own specification, a comfortable family home in a highly regarded location and enjoy not only a pleasant lifestyle but a lucrative investment for the future.
