Modernise Myrtledene!

This is a wonderful opportunity to purchase a three bedroom detached bungalow located just off the Saintfield Road. The property requires modernisation and benefits from no onward chain, a private setting and a large rear garden.

Downstairs comprises a welcoming hall, a lounge with space for a dining table, a recently fitted kitchen with space for dining and access to the garden, three bedrooms and a shower room. There is also an attached garage with light, power and an up & over door.

To the front there is a well-maintained garden laid in lawn with a nice selection of plants & shrubs and a driveway providing off-street parking. To the rear there is a very private garden with a spacious patio and a large lawn flanked by an established hedge.

The property is located just off the Saintfield Road with a host of amenities close by and provides easy access to Belfast by bus or car. Forestside shopping centre is only five minutes away and there is an excellent range of schools within the vicinity.
