

216 Ballymena Road, Ballyclare, BT39 0TP

PRICE Offers Over £500,000

Positioned on a landscaped, elevated, mature site extending to 0.7 acre within a picturesque well-regarded rural location, this property enjoys panoramic views over the surrounding countryside. This superb extended detached family home was designed and built by the present vendors and benefits from a spacious, well planned living layout incorporating six bedrooms, five receptions, master suite with dressing area, walk-in his & hers wardrobe and contemporary en suite bathroom. The property also benefits from a luxury four piece family bathroom with bedroom two boasting a bespoke built-in walk-in wardrobe and bedroom four with a modern en suite. If further accommodation is required, there are two additional bedrooms on the second floor. The property was built to an exacting standard with quality oak floor finishes, internal doors, architraves and a superb bespoke feature oak staircase. Externally, the gardens are laid mainly in lawn with a recently constructed childrens play park that will be a big hit with young families! The property further benefits from a detached double garage that has been adapted with a small kitchen, bathroom, living room and a floored and sheeted loft area, making it an ideal space for someone working from home. This could also be suitable for guest accommodation, subject to approvals. An adjacent field is available if more land is required, subject to negotiation.
