Detached four bedroom, four reception room family home on a generous site.

Situated on a magnificent corner site, 64 Broadway is an impressive detached property overlooking Ward Park, Bangor Golf Club and convenient to Bangor town centre, schools and transport links. Most recently in use as a day care nursery, this unique building was formerly a family home and many of its grand, period features have been retained. It doesn't take much imagination to see the enormous potential to restore it to a charming and distinctive residence. This exceptional property must be viewed to fully appreciate its potential as a beautiful family home in a much sought after residential address. Overall, the accommodation comprises four generous ground floor reception rooms and a further four large rooms on the first floor. Outside, there is a large tarmac driveway, and an enclosed garden area to the side. Residential properties of this size and stature are rare to the market and highly sought after and present a unique opportunity to a buyer with flare and imagination to create a home of the utmost distinct
