SUMMARY

A delightful detached bungalow set in its own grounds extending to 4.066 acres or thereabouts including a large paddock and spacious mature gardens.

The property includes a double garage, stores, glasshouse, potting shed and workshop and is situated between Saintfield and Carryduff enjoying easy access to Belfast, Lisburn and Ballygowan with excellent public transport available at the entrance gate.

The property includes two generous reception rooms, integrated kitchen; four bedrooms with built-in furniture in a majority of the bedrooms and a four piece bathroom suite.

Approached from a bitmac drive with ample parking, the property has been enhanced with cavity wall insulation and generous roofspace insulation adding to the oil fired central heating and double glazing.

For those with an interest in keeping their own horse or pony or a selection of livestock, the large paddock provided ample grazing and is equally suitable for a range of other interests.

This is an idealic family home for those with a love of the countryside and yet with a wide range of local facilities, schools, sports clubs etc. at your doorstep.
