SUMMARY

A delightful detached bungalow, occupying a slightly elevated site, ideally located in this much sought after coastal area of Whiterock.

The property is fitted with oil fired central heating, uPVC double glazing and boasts bright and spacious accommodation throughout, ideal for families, those looking to downsize or even those wanting a holiday home. A spacious lounge with part vaulted ceiling provides excellent entertaining space and opens through to the kitchen and dining area. The property is further enhanced by three excellent sized bedrooms, principal bathroom, separate shower room and utility room.

Outside, a spacious driveway provides excellent parking space and leads to the detached double garage, whilst well maintained gardens are located to the front and rear.

Situated only a short stroll to the shores of Strangford Lough, boasting a wealth of water sports and beautiful coastal walks, Daft Eddies pub/restaurant and Strangford Lough Yacht Club. The property is within a short drive of Killinchy primary school and Balloo where you can find a range of amenities including an excellent public transport network providing ease of access to Downpatrick and Belfast and an excellent range of grammar schools.
