SUMMARY

A spacious country residence with fine range of stabling set in its own grounds extending to circa 25.866 acres.

The residence, set on an elevated position enjoying pleasing views over the surrounding countryside, is situated a short drive to Carryduff and Saintfield and an easy commute to Belfast, Lisburn and motorway network.

Internally, two formal receptions open to spacious family room and kitchen. A study, workshop, laundry room, cloakroom and stores are also located at ground floor level.

Five double bedrooms, all with fitted furniture, principal bathroom, shower room, and generous store rooms, suitable for a range of uses, completes the quality family accommodation.

Externally, the generous landscaped gardens to front and side are planted with a fine selection of shrubs, herbaceous plants and spring flowering bulbs and are overlooked by the terrace. A soft fruit and vegetable plot with greenhouse and garden store provide the perfect extension to the property.

Nine stables, with tack rooms and feed stores, are clustered around the concrete yard, with an adjoining railed all weather turnout paddock providing ideal accommodation for the equestrian family.

The agricultural lands are approached off a shared lane, with access from the yard, and are all laid down to grass with water laid on.

For those with a love of the countryside and enjoy rural pursuits, this is the perfect family home.
